La Roche

Our La Roche Limestone Collection is a finely curated selection of sophisticated limestone tiles. It immediately sparks the imagination of our clients and friends, calling to mind evocative and exotic settings.

Through careful contemplation, we chose distinct colorways that, in our view, will suit almost any current design plan. This collection has a range of neutral tones and finishes, including brushed, honed, chiselled, and tumbled. These wide-ranging options invite the opportunity to mix and match different sizes, finishes, and colors. Be adventurous!
